

SAVE THE CLOCK TOWER

The Weather
Today—Mostly sunny, high near 86, low near 60. The chance of precipitation is near zero through tonight.
Thursday—Variable cloudiness with a high near 80. Yesterday's temperatures range: 80-64. Details, Page C2.

Hill Valley Telegraph

Index
Amusements B 6
Classified C 6
Comics B 6
Editorials A2C
Financial D10

4 Sections
72 Pages
Obituaries C 4
Sports D 1
Style B 1
Radio B 7
Metro C 1

Vol. XVII, No. 32

COMPLETE NEWS SERVICE
A. R. S. NEWS PHOTOS

PUBLISHED DAILY

THE NEWSPAPER THE PEOPLE
DEPEND UPON

10¢

CLOCK TOWER STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

Mall renewals are acceptable but cannot be accomplished as this club was organized over Mrs. Bing Koral, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Berger, Mr. and Mrs. Zach Pollak, chairman, has raised Club, new social organization tomorrow.

CLOCK STOPPED AT 10:04

Of no less importance was the common recognition shown of the fact that any menace from without to the peace of our continents concerns all of us and therefore properly is a subject for consultation and cooperation. This was reflected in the instruments adopted by the conference.

The facts regarding the situation remain the same, state the authorities. Details concerning the action have been given a preliminary investigation but it is felt that only by a more detailed study will the true facts become known.

Thus at this conference all our governments found themselves in unanimous agreement regarding this undertaking. Arrangements for dealing with questions and disputes between the republics were further improved.

Of no less importance was the common recognition shown of the fact that any menace from without to the peace of our continents concerns all of us and therefore properly is a subject for consultation and cooperation. This was reflected in the instruments adopted by the conference.

A suggestion that public hearings on applications be limited to one every six months was taken under advisement by the commission.

Many persons feel at this stage that some legal action is forthcoming but it now becomes common knowledge that there is pressure from the inside which will materially change the aspect of the case.

An immediate investigation is assured and indications are that some new light will be shed on the situation in the near future. Available facts seem vague but authorities feel that time will disclose some means of arriving at a solution.

Future plans will, of necessity, have great bearing on the situation as it now stands. Decisions will have to be made of the actual planning of the project will take considerable time but it is felt that these steps are very important.

Of no less importance was the common recognition shown of the fact that any menace from without to the peace of our continents concerns all of us and therefore properly is a subject for consultation and cooperation. This was reflected in the instruments adopted by the conference.

Thus at this conference all our governments found themselves in unanimous agreement regarding this undertaking. Arrangements for dealing with questions and disputes between the republics were further improved.

Of no less importance was the common recognition shown of the fact that any menace from without to the peace of our continents concerns all of us and therefore properly is a subject for consultation and cooperation. This was reflected in the instruments adopted by the conference.

A suggestion that public hearings on applications be limited to one every six months was taken under advisement by the commission.

Many persons feel at this stage that some legal action is forthcoming but it now becomes common knowledge that there is pressure from the inside which will materially change the aspect of the case.

An immediate investigation is assured and indications are that some new light will be shed on the situation in the near future. Available facts seem vague but authorities feel that time will disclose some means of arriving at a solution.

Future plans will, of necessity, have great bearing on the situation as it now stands. Decisions will have to be made of the actual planning of the project will take considerable time but it is felt that these steps are very important.

PLEASE MAKE DONATIONS TO

The Hill Valley Preservation Society

I love you!
555-4823